The President on the Stump

A SPEECH THAT HE OUGHT TO HAVE MADE BUT DID NOT

[From an article entitled "The President on the Stump" in the April number of the North American Review.]

If history were still written as it was till within two centuries and the author put into the mouth of his speakers such words as his conception of the character and the situation made probable and fitting, we could conceive an historian writing a hundred years hence to imagine some such speech as this for Mr. Johnson in an interview with a Southern delegation:

"Gentlemen, I am glad to meet you once more as friends, I wish I might say as fellow citizens. How soon we may again stand in that relation to each other depends wholly upon yourselves. You have been pleased to say that my birth and life long associations gave you confidence that I would be friendly to the South. In so saying, you do more than justice to my heart and my intentions, but you must allow me to say frankly that if you use the word South in any other than a purely geographical sense, the sooner you convince yourselves of its impropriety as addressed to an American President, the better. The South as a political entity was slavery, and went out of existence with it. And let me also as naturally connected with this topic, entreat you to disabuse your minds of the fatal mistake that you have been conquered by the North. It is the American people who are victors in this conflict and who intend to inflict no worse penalty on you than that of admitting you to an entire equality with themselves. They are resolved, by God's grace, to Americanize you, and America means education, equality before the law, and every upward avenue of life made as free to one man as another.—You urge upon me with great force and variety of argument, the manifold evils of the present unsettled state of things, the propriety and advantage of your being represented in both Houses of Congress, the injustice of taxation without representation. I admit the importance of every one of these considerations, but I think you are laboring under some misapprehension of the actual state of affairs. I know not if any of you have been in America since the spring of 1861, or whether (as I rather suspect) you have all been busy in Europe endeavoring to—but I beg pardon, I did not intend to say anything that should recall old animosities. But intelligence is slow to arrive in any part of the world, and intelligence from America painfully so in reaching Europe. You do not seem to be aware that something has happened here during the last four years, something that has made a very painful and lasting impression on the memory of the American people, whose voice on this occasion I have the honor to be. They feel constrained to demand that you shall enter into bonds to keep the peace. They do not, I regret to say, agree with you in looking upon what has happened here of late as only a more emphatic way of settling a Presidential election the result of which leaves both parties entirely free to try again. They seem to take the matter far more seriously. Nor do they so far as I can see, agree with you in the importance of conserving your several State sovereignties as you continue to call them, insisting much rather on the conservation of American and of American ideas. They say that the only thing which can individualize or perpetuate a Commonwealth is to have a history, and they ask which of the States lately in rebellion, except Virginia, had anything of the kind? In spite of my natural sympathies, gentlemen, my reason compels me to agree with them. Your strength, such as it was, was due less to the fertility of your brains than to that of your soil and to the invention of the Yankee, Whitney which you used and never paid for. You tell me it is hard to put you on a level with your negroes. As a believer in the superiority of the white race, I cannot admit the necessity of enforcing that superiority by law. A Roman emperor once said that gold never had the unpleasant odor of the place it came from, and I must say to you that loyalty is sweet to me whether it throbs under a black skin or a white. The American people have learned of late to set greater value on the color of ideas than on shades of complexion. As to the injustice of taxation without representation, that is an idea derived from our English ancestors, and is liable like all rules, to the exceptions of necessity. I see no reason why a State may not as well be disfranchised as a borough for an illegal abuse of its privileges; nor do I quite feel the parity of that reason which should enable you to do with a loyal black which we may not do with a disloyal white. Remember that this Government is bound by every obligation, ethical and political, to protect these people because they are weak, and to reward them (if the common privileges of manhood may be called a reward) because they are faithful. We are not fanatics, but a nation that has neither faith in itself nor faith towards others must soon crumble to pieces by a moral dry rot. If we may conquer you, gentlemen, (and you forced the necessity upon us,) we may surely impose terms upon you, for it is an old principle of law that cui licet majus, ei licet etiam minus.

"In your part of the country, gentlemen, that which we should naturally appeal to as the friend of order and stability—property—is blindly against us; prejudice is also against us, and we have nothing left to which we can appeal but human nature and the common privilege of manhood. You seem to have entertained some hope that I would gather about myself a "President's party" which should be more friendly to you and those animosities which you mistake for interests. But you grossly deceive yourselves. I have no sympathy but with my whole country; and there is nothing out of which such a party as you dream of could be constructed, except the broken remnant of those who deserted you when, for the first time, you needed their help and not their subserviency, and those feathery characters who are drawn hither and thither by office like bits of paper by electrized sealing wax. You throw yourselves upon our magnanimity, and I must be frank with you. My predecessor, Mr. Buchanan, taught us the impolicy of weakness and concession. The people are magnanimous but they understand by magnanimity a courageous steadiness in principle. They do not think it possible that a large heart should consist with a narrow brain, and they would consider it pusillanimous in them to consent to the weakness of their country by admitting you to a share in its government before you have given evidence of sincere loyalty to its principles, or, at least, of wholesome fear of its power. They believe, and I heartily agree with them, that a strong nation begets strong citizens and a weak one weak; that the powers of a private man are invigorated and enlarged by his confidence in the power of the body politic, and they see no possible means of attaining or securing this needed strength but in that homogeneousness of laws and institutions which breeds unanimity of ideas and sentiments, no way of arriving at that homogeneousness but the straightforward path of perfect freedom. Gentlemen, in bidding you farewell, I ask you to consider whether you have not forgotten that in order to men's living peacefully together in communities, the idea of government precedes that of liberty, and that the one is as much the child of necessity as the other is a slow concession to civilization and the habit of obedience to something more refined than force."

SECRETARY STANTON'S SPEECH.—Alluding to the late speech of Secretary Stanton, the St. Louis Republican (Copperhead) says:

We get after midnight a report of the serenade last night to President Johnson and members of the Cabinet. The speech of Secretary Stanton is just such a one as might have been expected from that man. He gave his ... all ... message ... of the President, with the view ... at this late ... inconsistent ... with ... ... right ... he ... to carry water ... both shoulders. He is opposed to negro suffrage in the South through Congressional legislation and disclaims ... at the third section of the reconstruction plan, and ... it is ... many radicals who strike out on the President's policy, but he finally takes the part of Congress ... nevertheless, and his utterances will fall coldly upon the ... of ...

THE LATE PRESIDENT.—A German paper publishes an anecdote of President Lincoln which has not been in print in this country. A Lieutenant whom debts compelled to leave his fatherland and service succeeded in being admitted to the late President Lincoln, and by reason of his combined and winning deportment and intelligent appearance, was promised a Lieutenant's commission in a cavalry regiment. He was so enraptured at his success that he deemed it a duty to inform the President that he belonged to one of the oldest noble houses in Germany. "Oh, never mind that," said Lincoln, "you will not find that to be an obstacle to your advancement."

Letter from Idaho City

IDAHO CITY, I. T., June 14, 1866.

EDITOR OREGONIAN,

The political contest in Oregon is over, in Idaho it has just begun. The contest between the Union and Democratic tickets will be close, but your loss will be our gain in the forthcoming election. The Union ticket is sure of success.

The political corruption of this Territory, and especially of Boise county, fairly surpasses anything ever known elsewhere. The Democracy have held and controlled every office in this county, and a man opposed to them dares not utter his sentiments for fear of the jail or the assassin. These are made to subserve the purposes of a corrupt party.

Every freighter to this camp is assessed by an official, and compelled to pay 3½ per cent on every dollar his train is assessed at, or suffer them to be sold. Importers and dealers are not slighted by the tax gatherer. This proceeding has several advantages. First, the importer pays a tax on his capital every time he visits the camp, if it be ten times per annum, and the wholesale and retail dealers pay a tax on these same goods in addition to the tax paid by the freighter every trip of his train.

The great mystery of this whole procedure is that the assessor and collector is one and the same man, and county scrip is only worth five cents on the dollar. Some men hold with great earnestness that the two last facts stated are very suggestive of fraud.

The Union party have nominated a splendid ticket. Men were selected who are worthy and tried, and not because they were most available. If this ticket is so fortunate as to triumph, a wonderful change will come over this country for good. I send you herewith the Union County nominees.

For Council, Dr. N. C. Bootman, Legislative Assembly, Jno. G. Martin, Jno. Martin, John Hensley, J. B. Mathewson, A. A. Ravine, F. Tuttle, A. F. Stone, A. McLaughlin, Sheriff, J. S. Gray; Treasurer, A. C. Isaacs, Auditor, Fred Roosevelt, Assessor, R. W. Button, County Commissioners, James W. Brown, E. M. Reed. School Superintendent, S. B. Hodgdon, County Clerk, Robt. O'Neil, Coroner, Dr. Chipman.

The Union party propose soon to issue a campaign paper.

Miners are doing very well; some rejoice in prosperity, others grumble for want of success.

One hundred Chinamen arrived to-day in town. Sam Wa hee, whom you will recognize as the Portland Chinese merchant, has a branch store here. He tells me that no more Chinamen will come by China.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE

SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 23, 1866

Status of the Rebel States

The Herald of the 22d makes use of the following language in an article attempting to prove that the rebels committed no crime punishable at civil law:

The laws of war are those of all civilized people in a full [illegible] of rights [illegible] acknowledged, and all authorities [illegible] agree that when belligerent rights are recognized in civil war the contending parties stand upon the same footing in every particular, [illegible] at war.

This position of the Herald refers the settlement of the questions involved in the rebellion to the arbitrament of international law. It claims that the United States and the Confederate States each stood upon the ground of a distinct nationality, each entitled to do what any nation could rightfully do, and that when the war terminated by the surrender of the rebel armies, it simply happened that one distinct nationality submitted to the power of another distinct nationality—in other words that the United States acquired a "conquered province."

The above position, if taken as the correct one, involves something more. The "Confederate States" having raised itself to the dignity of a separate distinct nation was the proprietor of the territory over which its jurisdiction was enforced. It had the right to dispose of territory to foreign powers by cession. It had the right to prescribe laws, with which no other nation could rightfully interfere. It owed no allegiance to the United states or any other Power. Its own constitution conferred upon its subjects the only rights they could have, personally. Its subjects could only look to the "Confederate" Government for protection—they could not appeal to England, France or the United States, because no government is under obligation to protect enemies or aliens.

Then, notwithstanding the subjects of the Confederate states may have been at a former time, the subjects of the United States, they had ceased to be such, and when they emancipated themselves from subjection and allegiance, they also necessarily renounced the rights and privileges of subjects. It follows that the rebels having rid themselves of all obligations to the government of the United States, they had also made it impossible to demand protection or any other right from the United States not granted by international law to all aliens.

If the above opinion from the Herald be correct, all this follows as a logical sequence. Then what becomes of that other Democratic doctrine, that the rebels have never been out of the Union? What becomes of that Democratic doctrine, that the rebels have at this moment every right under the constitution, which they ever had? If the Confederate States had a distinct nationality, did it not become "conquered territory," by the law of nations? Could not the conquerors hold it as a province or erect it into colonies, prescribing boundaries and fundamental laws? If the conqueror could do these things, could the conquered demand more than the victor chose to yield or more than the law of nations would require him to give? Could they demand representation, for instance, by the law of nations? Could they demand, under the law of nations, to be permitted to govern themselves?

Finally, we desire to ask, if the "Confederate States" was a nation, de facto, how is it that the subordinate States which composed it, are now, without legislation or compact, States within the Union, component sovereignties within the United States? The Herald and our readers will please remember that we are deducing these conclusions from the Herald's own premises and not from ours.

The Question of the Fisheries.

The repeal of the reciprocity treaty of June, 1854, has reopened the old question of the fisheries between the United States and Great Britain. By a settled principle of international law, the right of fishing in the waters adjacent to the coasts of any nation, within its territorial jurisdiction, belongs exclusively to the subjects of that nation. Under the treaty of 1854, the inhabitants of the United States were granted permission to take fish on the coasts, bays and harbors of British America, and to land on the shores and dry their fish, provided they respected private property. The termination of this treaty puts an end to the exercise of these rights by the inhabitants of the United States, and renders some new arrangement necessary to prevent hostile acts that must otherwise arise from a conflict of interests between the people of the two countries.

THE SOUTHERN PEOPLE.—The Springfield (Mass.) Republican states that it has direct and authentic information of a growing disposition among the Southern people to resume their old tone of defiance toward the Government, and that scarcely an attempt is now made to conceal or repress their hate of the Union. How is this and why is it? We think it beyond a doubt, attributable to the fact that the quarrel which the President has made with the Union party, his public speeches, and the programme for a new party, have all been taken by them to mean that Johnson intends to finally attach himself to the Northern Democracy, upon whom they know they can rely as allies; and that with such a combination they believe they can again come into the possession of the Government and become the dictators of "reconstruction." With such a prospective future they can afford to be as independent and insolently defiant as ever. They, in fact, seem to feel that they already have possession of the Government, and that the Union element in the nation, is the one to ask for favors. Under the stimulus of such a feeling, they are rapidly assuming such an attitude toward the freedmen and the Unionists South, according to the Republican's intelligence, as to make it very insecure for them to remain there, and thousands from North Carolina alone, are emigrating to the North and Northwest. The insecurity and indignities to which Union men are subjected, while their appeals for protection are unheeded by the President, have already disgusted a good many who fought through the rebellion on the Union side, and they begin to declare that if it were to do over again, they would not fight for a Government which thus leaves them not only without protection, but seems to connive with their domineering oppressors.

Our cotemporary has several times inquired if Andrew Johnson is a traitor. The same person who makes the inquiry says plainly and unequivocally that he is. Andrew Johnson did not obey the "orders of his State," but "adhered to the enemy in time of war." Therefore, by our neighbor's reasoning, he was guilty of "treason to his State" and "could undoubtedly be tried and punished" therefor. We should like to be informed by what right a person who is "undoubtedly a traitor" holds the office of President of the United States.

THE PRESIDENT AHEAD.—During the late trip of the steamer Last Chance, from Little Rock to this city, it was proposed to test the sense of the passengers as to the public questions that divide Congress and the President in policy. A poll was regularly opened, the name of each passenger was recorded, and the result found to be as follows: For the President, 38; for Congress, 2.—St Louis Republican.

We strongly suspect the steamer Last Chance from Little Rock, on that trip was heavily freighted with un reconstructed and unsubjugated rebels, who did not, during the year 1861-5, support Johnson's policy with very much zeal, and who were then about thirty eight to two in favor of Jeff Davis' policy as against the U. S. Congress, or "any other man" not a traitor.

Johnson on the Powers of the Senate

A proposition was lately brought before the Senate to define the appointing power of the President. This was immediately seized by the Conservative orators and flunky press as proof that the "Radicals" are determined to strip the President of all his Constitutional rights and powers, and usurp prerogatives which the Constitution vests exclusively in him. Now it happens that in this case as in most others of the kind that are now arising, we have the oracular utterances of Andrew Johnson himself in direct opposition to the position which he and his worshippers now hold. In the United States Senate December 19th, 1860, Andrew Johnson, Senator from Tennessee, said:

I believe we have the power in our hands and I am not willing to shrink from the responsibility of exercising that power. * * * * I am for abiding by the Constitution and abiding in it, I want to maintain and retain my place here and put down Mr. Lincoln and drive back the encroachments of [illegible] institutions. [illegible] Have we not got the brakes in our hands? Have we not got the power? We have. Let South Carolina send her Senators back, let all the Senators come, and on the 4th of March next we shall have a majority of six in this body against him. This section [illegible] candidate, who is in a minority of a million or nearly so on the popular vote, cannot make his Cabinet on the 4th of March next unless this Senate will permit him. Am I to be so great a coward as to retreat from duty? I will stand here and resist all encroachments and advances. Here is the place to stand. Shall I desert the citadel and let the enemy come and take possession? No. Can Mr. Lincoln send a foreign minister, or even a consul, abroad unless he receives the sanction of the Senate? Can he appoint a postmaster whose salary is over $1,000 a year, without the consent of the Senate? Shall we desert our posts, shrink from our responsibilities, and permit Mr. Lincoln to come with his cohorts as we consider them, from the North and carry away everything?

Wouldn't the above read as a pretty argument in favor of the proposition the Senate was considering, if the name of Johnson were only substituted for that of Lincoln? The future biographer of Andrew Johnson will have a herculean task of it to reconcile the President's past and present opinions with each other, and to give his character that consistent and symmetrical cast which his adulators claim it possesses.

The Grain Crop.

A San Francisco journal says that some of the leading houses in the grain trade of that city estimate that California the present season will have of wheat and barley 300,000 to 350,000 tons above the wants of that State for home consumption. Our own grain crop this year will, no question, be much larger than the product of any former season. From all parts of the State the announcement comes that the yield per acre promises to be heavier the coming harvest than has been known for years, while the breadth of land now growing in grain much exceeds the area of any former year. We have no means of estimating the amount of surplus wheat which Oregon will have on hand after the harvest shall be gathered in and the home demand supplied. But it will be very large. What will become of the surplus, and where we are to obtain a market for it, are questions of interest to Oregon. At present we can ship grain only to San Francisco, there to be reshipped to foreign ports. This is an unprofitable sort of traffic for this State, and does not promise much for us when it is considered that there is not shipping enough obtainable at San Francisco to carry away half the surplus grain product of California. Direct trade with the East would bring shipping here and enable our dealers to make direct exportations to the most advantageous markets. How to derive the largest benefit from our great grain crop, is, at present, a very interesting problem.

We have never advocated or defended the right of secession.—Herald, June 22.

Can a citizen be held amenable for treason by two Governments at the same time? The citizen of the seceded State could undoubtedly be tried and punished for treason to his State, if he adhered to the enemy in time of war. Where is the law under which he could be convicted of treason for an act done under the orders of the Government of his State?—Herald, June 9th.

That is to say, the paramount allegiance of the citizen is due to his State, and if his State should secede and the citizen should "adhere to the enemy," that is, to the United States, he could justly and lawfully be punished for so doing. This presupposes the rightfulness and legality of the act of secession. And if, as the Herald asserts, a State has the moral and legal right to command the services of its citizens to enforce an act of secession, it has a priori, the right to secede. If the Herald does not defend the right of secession in its issue of the 9th inst, and in many other issues before and since that date, we will thank it to tell us what it does mean by saying that it is not treason to the United States to take up arms against its authority at the command of a State, but that it is treason to a State for the citizen to adhere to the United States after his State has assumed to withdraw from the Union.

STATES RIGHTS.—Whatever may have been the original ideas of the Democracy about States rights, the present meaning of the term appears to be, that States have the right to secede at will, break down the government if they can, and failing in that, to come back and run the machine in lieu of the party which got in the way of their Confederacy.

The State Rights Democrat has temporarily suspended publication. It will resume as soon as its proprietor can obtain a much needed loan. Like Mr. Chevy Slyme, a frequent requisition for loans is one of the peculiarities of his remarkable genius.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—The eastern line is still out of order [illegible].

[illegible] Burlingame [illegible] lawyer [illegible] the Pacific M. S. S. Company and Cal. Steam Navigation Company [illegible] Samuel Blackwell. The examination [illegible].

Quite a sensation was produced in the harbor this morning by the arrival of the U. S. naval steamer Vanderbilt which left [illegible] the flag ship [illegible] accompanied by the double turreted monitor Monadnock. These vessels left Hampton Roads [illegible] the 2d of November last and have [illegible] the passage. This is the first [illegible] around the Horn [illegible] Straits of Magellan [illegible]. She will [illegible] was built in Boston during the second year of the war and was the second monitor of her class that went into commission. She was present and did good service in the attack on Fort Fisher and after the surrender of that fort went to Charleston Harbor where she participated in many engagements, and remained there until Charleston was captured. She was then ordered to the James river where she did good service until the surrender of Lee's army. She was then sent to Havana [illegible] the Confederate ram Stonewall and [illegible] the Spanish authorities [illegible] returned to Hampton Roads. From thence she went to Philadelphia, where she was fitted for the voyage to the Pacific coast. She will remain in this harbor until Monday or Tuesday next when she will be taken to Mare Island and be put out of commission until her services may be required for the defence of this harbor. She will be open to visitors to-morrow. It will repay our citizens to give her an inspection. She is entirely different in construction from the Camanche and will be a novelty to most people on this coast.

Among the naval officers who came out in the Vanderbilt is Commodore [illegible], who is to command the fleet on this coast. He has been in active service all through the war having command of the monitor Weehawken at the first attack on Charleston under Admiral Dupont. With this same monitor he captured the rebel ram Atlanta in Ogeechee river, and participated in numerous engagements with rebel rams and land batteries on the Atlantic coast.

The health of the officers and men of both vessels has been excellent during the trip [illegible] the monitor not having lost a man, and the Vanderbilt having lost but one man at St. Thomas [illegible].

[illegible] [illegible] Schedule shows losses of [illegible] $5,700 [illegible] $3 600 by purchase of a half interest in the Mechanics' Hotel at $10,000 [illegible] in the [illegible] a accommodation of friends. Liabilities $33 271. Assets property on the north-east corner of Stockton and Jackson streets, worth $25,000, and other property worth about $2,700, which is mortgaged for nearly its entire value, and [illegible] of worthless mining stock and debts due the petitioner, to the amount of $4 212.

Andrew McEvoy arrested on charge of robbing C Hecht or W. L. Adams, of Astoria has been charged in the police docket with grand larceny. He has already made a full confession of his complicity in the robbery. He waived an examination to-day and was held to answer in $2,000 bail.

The case of John Duane charged with complicity in the killing of Wm H Ross was submitted in police court to-day without argument. The charges of riot against the Duane brothers, and also the charge of shooting a leg against Charles Duane were continued for argument until next Tuesday. After these matters had been arranged the Judge said that he could dispose of the murder case as well now as at any time. There was a large amount of testimony in the matter which was very conflicting, but the case was one of unusual importance, and he considered that it should be sent to the Grand Jury. The defendant was ordered to be held to answer before the county court.

The Markets

Private telegrams dated New York, June 18th, quote an advance of 10 @ 20 per cent on staple cotton goods. Atlantic prints were quoted at 21 cts., and Lonsdale shirtings at [illegible]. Flour—Half sks @ 100 lbs, 6.00 @ 6.25 [illegible] extra hf sks, 6 25 @ [illegible] qr sks [illegible]. Wheat—There is rather more demand for export at previous rates. Sales include [illegible] sks good shipping at 160, 1,500 at 120, 600 sks good milling at 160, and 800 sks coast at 1 60 per ctl. Barley—Sales of 600 sks choice feed at 82½. We quote feed at 72½ @ 82½, and brewing at 87½ @ cwt. Corn—Sales of 80 sks southern coast, yellow, at 115 per ctl. Hay—30 tons new at $10. Financial and commercial advices from the East are awaited with great anxiety, and the absence of such intelligence causes much suspense in business circles.

Legal Tenders—Mining Share Market.

The market for legal tenders remains statu quo. Brokers paying 71 and selling at 72 with very little doing. The absence of later news from the East and Europe also has rather a demoralizing effect on the general markets. There is a pressure to sell in some instances while in other holders are inclined to await later telegraphic advices before operating.

In the mercantile markets some important sales have been consummated.

The improved tone of the mining share market noted yesterday was sustained this forenoon though the transactions were light. Under continued and favorable developments, Hale & Norcross is very buoyant, the price advancing $20 from the latest sales on the 20th inst. From the morning board yesterday, Yellow Jacket improved $7 50, Imperial and Chollar Potosi each, $5. Bowher was a little off from the evening board yesterday. Among the miscellaneous stocks, there were sales of Spring Valley Water Company at $61, a decline of 4 per cent. Cal. Steam Navigation sold a little higher than at the beginning of the week.

Arrived—U S flag ship Vanderbilt, J. P Sandford, commander 151 days from Hampton Roads, via Rio Janeiro, 101 days, Valparaiso 65 days Panama 31 days.

Sailed—June 22d, bark Florence, Puget Sound; Bark Oak Hill do, bark Dawson, Puget Sound.

FROM THE NORTH.

VICTORIA June 22.—The Steamer Sierra Nevada arrived here at three p. m., and will probably leave to-morrow for New Westminster. The Western Union Telegraph Co.'s new stern-wheel steamer Hunford also arrived here this afternoon, where she will be fitted up previous to her dispatch for the waters of British Columbia.

A serious dispute has arisen here between Governor Kennedy and the Legislative Assembly in regard to the financial condition of this colony. The latter have telegraphed a lengthy petition to the home Government asking, with a view to retrenchment, that this Colony be united to that of British Columbia, believing that one Governor would be sufficient for both Colonies.

FROM BRITISH COLUMBIA

We are indebted to Capt. Erskine, of the Fidelater, for files of Victoria papers to the 20th. We clip the following items:

AN ACCIDENT AND A ROW WITH INDIANS.

The schooner Hey Merrilies, Pamphlet, arrived from Alberni yesterday morning. Pamphlet reports that a Northern Indian, acting in the capacity of cook, accidentally shot the chief of the Barclay Sound Indians a few days ago. The chief's gun lay in a canoe and the cook drew it forth for the purpose of examining it, when the weapon went off. The whole charge lodged in the arm of the chief, near the shoulder, and he remained with no hope of recovery when the schooner sailed. When the accident took place the cook fled to the schooner for protection. He was followed by the whole tribe, who demanded that he should be delivered up to them for summary punishment. Captain Pamphlet loaded all the muskets on board and declined to comply with the demand. The natives applied the war-paint to their faces, and for a time matters looked very threatening, but the determination of the captain finally overawed the warriors, and they were compensated for their loss by the present of a few trifling articles.

DISCOVERY OF NEW GOLD FIELDS

The success of the exploring party to Canyon Creek is announced by telegraph and the accounts indicate that a new and extensive gold field has been struck there. Between the news from Big Bend the improved state of things on Williams and Grouse Creeks, and this last discovery matters appear brighter than ever.

FROM NANAIMO

The steamer Sir Jas. Douglas arrived from Comox, Nanaimo and intermediate settlements yesterday afternoon. On Tuesday last a man named Cafferty employed in the coal pit, was seriously injured by being crushed beneath the descending cage which contained several men. He was attended by Dr Carrall and was recovering. A recent storm had uprooted a great many trees across the road to the Harewood mine rendering it impassable till they are removed. A hyas potlatch was being held by the Nanaimo Indians at which upwards of 1000 Siwashes from the neighboring friendly tribes were present. Hiyou blankets and other [illegible] were potlatched and general festivities prevailed which at one time threatened [illegible] till constable Stuart interfered and locked up some of the refractory revellers. About 7000 tons of coal are now piled up at the mouth of the pit and shipping can be supplied at the shortest notice. Mr Jaml's new church is progressing rapidly and will be finished early in July. The new bore is down about 80 fathoms they have penetrated the Douglas seam and are now going through a stratum of very hard free stone.

NEW WESTMINSTER ITEMS

The House of Assembly met yesterday and discussed [illegible] of the state of the colony with closed doors. The defence of the colony was also taken into consideration and a resolution passed to bring in a military bill.

A fine-looking schooner called the Marcia came [illegible] from the Sound yesterday under [illegible], with her spars on deck ready for being rigged.

The fall of rain during this spring, has been unusual, although the frequent evening showers have so far done more good than harm, and the country is everywhere looking beautiful. The crops this year promise to be most abundant and root crops, grain, and fruit are also promising well.

THE BIG BEND MINES

All are unanimous that little can be done at present and say that had it not been for the supplies brought up the Columbia there would be very few men left in the diggings. The number of men on the two creeks is estimated at from 300 to 400 persons. But many are waiting for Ravelle to report a return and commence operations.

TERRIBLE EXPLOSION OF GUNPOWDER.—The Hartford Times of the 8th ult furnishes the following account of a terrible explosion which recently occurred at the powder manufactory at Hazardville, Connecticut:

The explosion took place in the press mill, a central one among the numerous mills devoted to the manufacture of powder in the valley known as Hazardville. This mill was completely annihilated not a foundation stone or piece of timber remaining. Black and burnt broken timbers, a [illegible] of stones [illegible] and the blackened and ghastly fragments of what had once been human beings—here a finger, there a hand or a hand attached to the arm [illegible] explosion [illegible] may have been thrown into the adjoining pond which will be dragged to-day for the purpose of finding them.

As usual the amount of powder that exploded is difficult for newspaper reporters to obtain. One version has it four tons, and others fifteen and seventeen tons. We believe the amount to have been two tons. Certainly the shock plainly felt in this city eighteen miles distant, and the vast pillar of solid white smoke ascending to the sky and plainly seen at a distance of twenty miles would indicate a large explosion. A little mill adjoining the press mill and containing two tons of powder is said to have exploded with the other.

STATE ITEMS.

The Congregational Association of Oregon has been in session the last two or three days in this city. We learn that it will continue till Sunday evening.

Two horses were stolen from F. Dobbins of Washington county, last Wednesday night—It is supposed by Henry Wilson and James Moss, one of whom had been at work for Mr. D., and the other for Mr. Wilkes. The men and horses disappeared the same night. Search has been made in every direction, but up to Friday noon no traces of the direction taken had been discovered.

We learn that the Columbia is rising so rapidly at the Dalles as to create considerable alarm.

Lieut. Cutley late Quartermaster of the Oregon Infantry, who some time since received a commission as 2d Lieutenant in the 14th U. S. Infantry, left on the Oregon yesterday, to report to his regimental commander in Pennsylvania.

The [illegible] of Baker county has very considerably increased since 1864. We learn that a permanent agricultural population is filling up the valleys of the Powder river and its tributaries. By reason of their proximity to the mines, the farmers of Baker and Union counties can pursue their avocation with greater profit than can be realized in the same industry anywhere else in the State.

AN EXTENDED POPULARITY.—Brown's BRONCHIAL TROCHES have been before the public many years. Each year finds them in new localities in various parts of the world. The Troches are pronounced universally superior to all other articles used for similar purposes. For relieving Coughs, Colds, and Throat Diseases, the Troches have been proved reliable.

HOW BEAUTIFUL is So the visitors to ELLSWORTH & CARDWELL'S PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY 80 First Street, say who daily throng there to look at the elegant CARTES DE VISITE SUN PEARLS and other SPLENDID PICTURES. Like the Drummond Light, the work which comes from this establishment eclipses all others for beauty and brilliancy.

THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN.

THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN is published this morning. It contains the latest telegraphic news from the East and California, a selection of the best articles appearing in THE DAILY OREGONIAN, local and valuable news from the mines, and the most copious commercial information published by any paper in the State.

The average amount of reading matter in THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN is double that published by any other journal in Oregon, and in the particulars of Commercial statistics and the Markets we aim to make it the most reliable more especially in matters pertaining to Oregon interests.

☞ Single copies 12½ cents, or $4 00 per year, to any part of the United States, or British Columbia.

THE OREGONIAN ESTABLISHMENT. Whilst it is always a matter of gratification to us to report the evidences of prosperity in establishments of an industrial line, and mark the progress our favored State is making in the advancement of the arts and sciences which mostly constitute a thrifty community, we have said but little in reference to our own immediate business affairs, about the DAILY and WEEKLY OREGONIAN establishment. That it has been the aim of the publisher of this paper to keep pace with the times, or even to step ahead of the times, the appearance of the OREGONIAN abundantly testifies. As a medium for general information from all parts of the country, and especially an advocate of particular measures, and chronicler of events most calculated to place Oregon right, the OREGONIAN has been a faithful, untiring, and correct representative of the interests of all classes. We shall continue to do our utmost in behalf of the people of our State, and while we do so, in proportion to the amount of patronage we are receiving it is admitted that our efforts are greater than the city or country press generally. In politics the character of the OREGONIAN is well known, since its commencement has been strictly Union. But on this occasion we shall not go back to review the early days of the paper, nor trace its history up to the time it became know as the leading and most enterprising paper of the State. In February, 1864, it was found necessary to apply steam in working the editions of the OREGONIAN, and very soon after we began to realize that increased facilities would shortly be needed. But a few months since, a folding machine was purchased for us in New York, which is now in successful operation in this office, and it is the only one employed upon the Pacific coast. It is gratifying to us to be able to state that all our efforts have been rewarded with increased patronage and that to-day we find the OREGONIAN establishment, in point of business, and the arrangement throughout its various departments, equal to our highest expectations. It now occupies the first and second floors of the building, No. 5 Washington street, and is divided into apartments adapted peculiarly for each separate branch of work. The front room opening on Washington street, is devoted to the business transactions of the concern. In the rear of this is the power press rooms and engine and boiler rooms. On the second floor is the editorial and composing rooms. The boiler which has been lately added, besides supplying steam for driving all the machinery of the establishment, furnishes sufficient to warm the various rooms, and steam pipes have taken the place of stoves in every department of the office. The engine is the same as was described in the DAILY OREGONIAN of the 20th of February, 1864, at which time the first paper printed by steam in the State, was issued from this office. It is a table or upright engine, of four horse power, occupying a base of but 28 by 40½ inches in size and stroke is 8 inches, with a six inch cylinder, metallic packing, and is a fine specimen of neat workmanship—made at home. This engine was the first piece of machinery of the kind ever manufactured north of San Francisco, but since its construction great changes have been brought about in that branch of business in our city, equally important with the growth and prosperity of our own establishment. Our press is one of Hoe's best cylinder machines, and with the application of steam readily casts off 2,000 impressions per hour, which are next transferred to the folding machine, which folds the sheets in proper shape, even at a faster rate than the press can work them. Our facilities for mailing, and addressing the editions, both DAILY and WEEKLY, are equal to all other departments of the office, which we consider now so thorough and complete that we can ask our friends and patrons in, to witness the operation of printing, and hope to show them something new. We shall continue to make additions and improvements, from time to time, as machinery and new forms become known, and we trust that our friends may appreciate our exertions in their behalf, and be ready and willing to make opportunities for the extension of our circulation, that we may be enabled to continue in the course we are pursuing.

STREET DRAINS.—A very respectable citizen and a Chinaman were arraigned yesterday before Recorder Hoffman for allowing a nuisance to accumulate at the corner of Pine and Front streets. Both were discharged, but we understand a system of drainage will be established in that locality to abate the nuisance. At the last meeting of the Common Council the subject of draining Pine street was brought up, on the petition of the owners of property adjacent, who represented that in 1854 there was a drain built across Front street for the purpose of carrying the accumulation and stagnating of pools of water at those corners, but at the time the Nicolson pavement was laid down in 1863 the drain was destroyed. Inasmuch as Oak, Washington, and other streets had been supplied with sewers last year paid for out of the general fund, petitioners asked that Pine street might be served in a similar manner. The Council deemed their action last year an error, and were unwilling to extend the favors conferred by such action. It was stated that there was a necessity for drainage, but as yet the city was not prepared to adopt any special system, and until such time as the matter could be acted upon understandingly, drains must be built at the expense of the property owners to be benefited by it. Persons in want of drains should begin them before it is so late as to interfere with contracts on street improvements proposed, or in course of construction.

CIRCUIT COURT.—E. D. SHATTUCK, Judge. Friday, June 22d, 1866. In the matter of the case of Wm. Creo, administrator of the estate of Robert Thompson, deceased, vs. W. W. Chapman. Judgment was rendered on a verdict of the jury for plaintiff......Hugh Doherty vs. F. Brandon, judgment by default in favor of the plaintiff, for the sum of $22 in coin......The case of the State vs. J. D. Carter, indicted for the murder of A. T. Burns, was called. Kittell, Dolph and Smith appeared for defendant. District attorney, Hodgkinson, assisted by L. Blout, for prosecution. The jury was empanneled and witnesses examined, and upon statement of counsel for the State that they did not desire to urge a conviction, the case was submitted. The jury, without leaving the court room, rendered a verdict of "not guilty," and defendant was discharged. The fact was disclosed that Burns had threatened the life of Carter, and at the time the killing occurred, the former was in the act of drawing a pistol on defendant. Mr. Carter's reputation as a peaceable citizen was established, while the character of Burns was manifestly notorious.

CONGREGATIONAL ASSOCIATION.—The business of this Association to-day is arranged as follows: Prayer meeting from 8 to 9 A. M. Discussion of Sabbath School interests from 9 to 10; Benevolent societies from 10 to 11; Temperance and our duties respecting it, from 11 to 12. In the afternoon, conference and prayer meeting from 2 to 3; Pastoral duties (discussion) during remainder of afternoon. Preaching in the evening by Rev. P. S. Knight. On Sabbath, communion and sermon by Rev. O. Dickinson; Sunday evening, sermon by Rev. D. B. Gray.

BOILER FOR SALE.—Having increased the facilities for making steam used in driving the machinery of the OREGONIAN establishment, by putting in a larger boiler, we now wish to dispose of the one previously in use, and will sell it on favorable terms. The boiler is five feet long, 12 inches in diameter, has fourteen inch-and-a-half tubes, is of the best quality of iron, and in good condition. It is suitable for many purposes, and will be sold low, on application at the counting room of this office, No. 5 Washington street.

SALE OF A VESSEL.—The large schooner Mary Davis, two hundred tons, was yesterday disposed of by Capt. Davis, her former master, to parties who intend putting her in the wood trade, between Portland and the Columbia river. We presume it will not be long before the Captain will have another craft, as he could no more live without a deck to walk upon, than a fish out of water.

"WHAT IS IT?"—The Agriculturist lately had a paragraph about a new association in Portland called the "Social Rinderpest." This society is a mystery to outsiders and we frequently hear the inquiry, "What is it?" Nobody, however, seems disposed to answer. But we hear it said that the "Rinderpest" is going to celebrate the 4th in its own peculiar manner—whatever that may be.

LINCOLN HOUSE.—Our office was surprised last evening by the entrance of a person bearing in his arms a bountiful collation from the Lincoln House. We learned that the raid was occasioned by a change of proprietors of this popular house. Mr. H. S. Jewett succeeds Mr. T. J. Carter, in the future management of the Lincoln.

COMPLIMENTARY TO MR. LUMSDEN.—Willamette Theatre has been engaged for Monday evening, on which occasion "the friends and admirers of Mr. Nicolas Lumsden" having tendered him a complimentary benefit, he will deliver his "Mag," assisted by Mr. Sellack, Violinist. The programme appears in another column.

ARRIVED.—The fine little steamer Fidelitér arrived on her second trip from Victoria last evening. We are at a loss to account for her having grounded in the passage from Astoria on both trips up the Columbia. Her memoranda, passenger list, and manifest will be found in another column.

THE LONG DAYS.—According to McCormick's Almanac the sun yesterday morning arose at 4 17 o'clock, and took its exit at 7:47. The days will be of equal length from this time till Monday next. These are the longest days of the year.

THE TEMPLARS' EXCURSION.—The Good Templars' excursion on the Fourth, will be to Vancouver and Fisher's landing. The Mechanic's Brass Band, and the steamer Julia have been chartered.

VACATION.—The students of the Catholic Academy will now enjoy a weeks vacation. The term closed yesterday, after a very satisfactory season, both to teachers and pupils.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—Rev. W. H. Stoy will officiate in Trinity Church on Sunday morning and evening. There will be no service in St. Stephen's Chapel.

ERROR.—In our review of the markets it would appear that "green pears" are offering at 8@10 cents per pound. This is a typographical error. It should read green peas.

THE SCHOONER Alfred Crosby arrived at Victoria on the 18th inst. from this port.

ST. JOHN'S DAY.—Members of Harmony Lodge No. 12, F. & A. M., will bear in mind the stated meeting on St. John's Day, at the usual hour. Master Masons in good standing are invited. By order, W. M.

TEETH IN RUINS are a sore drawback on personal appearance and personal comfort. Therefore, keep them in good repair with that established antidote for all the diseases that assail them, fragrant Sozodont.

THE "CHIVALROUS" WISE.—The editor of the Stockton (Cal.) Independent tells the following anecdote which he has heard related about that insufferable and garrulous old coward and knave, Henry A. Wise:

A young friend who had never flashed his sword in mortal combat, was challenged. He chose the distinguished Accomacian as his second. The weapons were pistols, each man to load for himself. The young Hy... brought his pistol, his round already loaded, and asked his last advice. "What have you got in that?" asked Wise, pointing to the weapon. "A leaden bullet and a charge of powder," answered the youth. "Just draw that load," said Wise, "and re-mould your ball two or three times. It will be all the harder. Never shoot a man with a soft ball. It will flatten against his ribs and slip round under the skin without doing execution. A hard ball will crash through bones and all, and your antagonist won't trouble you for a second fire." The advice was regularly followed and the [illegible] killed his man. Do you think Wise felt bad about it? Not a bit of it. He laughed that he had done his duty. If the original load had gone off and the ball flattened against a rib he would probably have died of the grin.

MILITARY INTELLIGENCE.—We learn, on the authority of San Francisco dispatches, that Colonel Baker, son of the late General Baker, returned from service at the East, by last steamer, and reports on General Halleck's staff. General Halleck left for Oregon and Washington Territory, overland, last evening. General McDowell is also to leave for the North in a few days on a tour of inspection. It is rumored that Gen. Sherman will be at Salt Lake next week, en route for this coast, also, that Sheridan is on the way up the Rio Grande to Arizona; he possibly is also bound here ultimately.—Sac. Bee, 14th inst.

All Persons should test the merits of DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. While it is highly palatable as a beverage, it is unequalled as a tonic and invigorant. In the pursuit of fortune at the mines, many persons are exposed to the attacks of complaints of the digestive organs, and of various kinds of fever. It is the very article that has so long been in demand at the mines. Its daily use will restore the tone of a deranged stomach, impart fresh vitality to the digestive functions, and cheer the spirits. Yet the bitters is the safest of all stimulants. Let the miner who is exposed to hot and dry, wet and cold, be certain to obtain a supply of the genuine Hostetter Bitter, and he will find it a certain safeguard to health. Sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. ja20 HODGE, CALEF, & Co., 97, Front St.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities, and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supercede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in Bulk, is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of G. VENARD, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

Each package bears the signature of G. VENARD.

Seward's Speech at Auburn

[illegible] Seward's [illegible] as follows:

My good friends: [illegible] first met the [illegible] [illegible] large [illegible] We were [illegible] the [illegible] throughout the States. The leaders who [illegible] Democratic [illegible] [illegible] They had [illegible] war for the Union [illegible] successful [illegible] the [illegible] party [illegible] by offering a new [illegible] They [illegible] as equal to [illegible] [illegible] themselves [illegible] for the [illegible] They [illegible] on their new [illegible] and [illegible] their straggling lines as well as they so hastily could [illegible] reward for a partisan [illegible] victory.

What led the Democratic leaders to make this change was the striking, I may call it the [illegible] which was just then exhibited [illegible] the scene of the recent rebellion. The [illegible] in that [illegible] region accepting the conditions of [illegible] and the allegiance which were proclaimed by the Administration [illegible] principles [illegible] of secession and disunion [illegible] a new covenant of loyalty sealed with their oaths and brought forward with alacrity the remains of their long cherished institution of slavery and cheerfully threw them to be burned on the constitutional altar which they had [illegible] restored.

The unexpected changes in the attitude of political adversaries once so obstinate, naturally enough excited jealousies and apprehensions among loyal and tried Union men. It was the old case of William of Orange, who having the civil war put down by force, afterwards found it necessary to give the Jacobites and papists the right of citizenship. It is the case which has ever occurred and which must forevermore occur at the end of a successful resistance to rebellion.

How could Democrats and rebels be converted to the support of a triumphant Union Administration? This was the question everywhere put by the zealous leaders of the Union party. It was at that moment that I answered that question by asking another: How could Democrats and rebels avoid being converted? Is it not their conversion that you contended for and that you now desired? I expressed the opinion that the condition of peace with new responsibilities should thenceforth be in good faith accepted. I advised prompt and complete reconciliation with the restoration at once of the constitutional symmetry of the Union, rejecting the ungenerous suspicion that the rebels and their Democratic abettors were only changing their political strategy with traitorous purposes.

I argued that with few and marked exceptions they were now to be received as fellow citizens and brethren. I argued that this would be safely done if only the tried friends of the Administration remaining united and harmonious, and thus retaining their justly acquired prestige, should themselves promptly and magnanimously secure to the nation the enjoyment of ardently desired peace and indispensably required prosperity—for the true friend of the Union acted upon that policy. Elections everywhere resulted in the defeat and overthrow of Democratic organization, and placed the Administration of Andrew Johnson beyond the reach of danger at home or abroad.

The work of reconciliation has overrun expectation. Indeed it has never been paralleled in human affairs. With internal commotions and disturbances less grievous than those which sometimes attended popular elections before the country in time of peace heretofore, the disloyal people of Virginia, Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana, Florida and Texas successively, nay almost simultaneously assembled and adopted new Constitutions, in conformity with the constitution of the United States. They uptorned rebellion with all its far spreading roots, and all its pernicious functions, and they accepted and ratified the pending Congressional amendment to the Constitution of the United States which abolishes slavery henceforth and forever.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

WEEKLY REVIEW

PORTLAND, June 22d, 1866.

In financial circles business has been steady and without change for the period passing in review. The tendency for money to advance is great, but the restrictions of the usury law prevents any unusual influences. The substantial decline in gold for the week previous has caused a stronger market for legal tenders, but we hear of only limited transactions. No alterations in exchange are noticed, but the price of gold in New York has stimulated the demand for telegraphic transfers.

There is a superabundant supply of capital in California, with limited sources for its investment in operations paying 1½@2½ per cent. per month, the present bankers rates. Capitalists are employing their money to a large extent in the purchase of San Francisco county and city bonds, finding it difficult to invest it otherwise.

Noticing a work on usury laws, the Alta says, California, Oregon and Nevada are the only States that have no such laws. That may be said in reference to California and we believe Nevada, but not so with Oregon. It might have been left for the Pacific Coast to take the lead in an important financial reform regarding usury, but if so this State has failed to sustain its position. The abundance of money in California and the great and growing scarcity of it in Oregon shows to a certain extent the effect in the working of the laws governing money in each State respectively. That some changes in the usury law of Oregon are necessary we are firmly of the opinion, if not that it should be repealed entirely. Speaking on this subject the Alta says in its review of the "History of Usury," taking opposite grounds with the author:

"The grand questions are whether it is proper that money should be loaned at interest, and if so, whether men can make contracts thoroughly understood by both parties and beneficial to both? The answers being in the affirmative, it follows that the contracts should be enforced when made. If a person puts his money into a manufactory he can sell his goods at any price that others will consent to pay, even if the sale yields him fifty per cent. profit annually; but in those States where usury laws prevail he cannot lend it for fifteen per cent. to another man who might desire to engage in the same manufacture. As an actual fact, usury laws are universally despised by business men and very frequently violated. It is impossible to frame a usury law that cannot be evaded. The law may forbid a man to give his note for more than a given rate of interest, but it cannot prevent him from selling his own note or the note of another for less than its face. The restriction is a reward to rascality, a bribe to [illegible] and an obstacle to the national growth."

The arrival of the machinery necessary for the Oregon Iron (Smelting) Works at Oswego, six miles south of this city, has been noted during the week passing in review. That a demand will at once spring up for the products of the Company is beyond a doubt. We have no full reliable statistics [illegible] calculation [illegible] what the demand is likely to be, but in all probability it will more than equal the supply. We are informed by statistics lately published that the consumption of pig iron in San Francisco for the year 1857 amounted to 4,000 tons. Since that time the consumption has gradually increased and from 10,000 tons in 1863, we notice that estimates place the [illegible] likely to be consumed in 1866 at 20,000 tons and these estimates [illegible] the material to be used at the works of the Pacific Rolling Mill Company which promises to be an important one.

[illegible] subject of a road [illegible] of Multnomah [illegible] something has been done. [illegible] This city has paid $5,000 toward [illegible] a road from the head of [illegible] [illegible] Prairie, the completion of which will enable loaded teams to reach the Blackfoot mines in a short space of time [illegible] than by any other road. The merchants of San Francisco have also contributed $5,000 in aid of this enterprise.

We are informed the county is being expended very prudently [illegible] Mr. [illegible] Mosely [illegible] bridge [illegible] Mr. Mosely [illegible] laborers at a high price, owing to the great excitement [illegible] discovery [illegible] Elk Creek [illegible] west and north of Helena [illegible] [illegible] a short time [illegible]

It is said that there are some 10,000 miners on Elk Creek [illegible] [illegible]

Messrs. [illegible] are [illegible] building a [illegible] [illegible] lake [illegible] Falls [illegible] about sixty [illegible]

Hunt* [illegible] sufficient [illegible] We want the very best ships that can be built. We [illegible] [illegible] itself upon Oregonians and why not adopt [illegible] at this time.

It is said negotiations are going on [illegible] a subsidy from the English Government for a line of steamers between China and the Pacific coast, Hong Kong, it was thought, would be made the port of arrival and departure in China. Steam communication between Australia and England via Panama is also [illegible] being inaugurated. The first mail steamer from Australia it is said will be dispatched [illegible] month. This will afford the Pacific States regular monthly mail facilities with the Australian colonies, which [illegible] of great advantage to the commercial [illegible] of the coast.

A [illegible] speaking of the [illegible] of the [illegible] trade says, writing with reference to the [illegible] the English Government [illegible] a line [illegible] between the Pacific coast and Hong Kong.

Freights from Liverpool and London to the Pacific coast are looking up, the rates being [illegible] last advices, for [illegible] cargoes 40@50s. [illegible] west coast of South America [illegible] were 50s with but [illegible] from the Chincha Islands at 70s.

The offerings for general freights at New York on the 21st of May [illegible] were moderate, but the prospect was better than to Europe. All engagements up to that date had been made up principally of oils—Petroleum, Olive, Lard and Linseed—Crushed Sugar, Candles, Whisky, Nails, Railroad and Pig Iron, etc. Measurement goods are quoted at 40@45c, weight [illegible] Nails, 87½@31 and 75@90c for Oil. In some [illegible] agents demand an advance upon these figures. The Inga Jacoo, owned by Adams, Blinn & Co. of San Francisco, had been thoroughly overhauled and placed in G. D. Sut[illegible] the George Peabody had been chartered [illegible] to proceed to Philadelphia to load with Coal for San Francisco. The Hamburg ship Elise Hager [illegible] chartered by the Pacific Mail Steamship Company [illegible] to Kanagawa, Japan, with Coal to supply the steamships of their new line between the Pacific coast and China [illegible] other vessels would follow. This looks like business, and will give satisfaction to all who justly regard the inauguration of the line as the harbinger of better times.

Wholesale and Jobbing Prices.

PORTLAND, June 22d, 1866.

Business for the week about closing has been good in all the various branches of trade. Recent arrivals have greatly replenished stocks and our dealers generally are prepared to fill large orders at the present time. Besides the usual weekly arrivals of steamers from San Francisco we have the iron steamer Fideliter plying regularly to Victoria and the bark Samuel Merritt from Honolulu with a large cargo of sugars and pulu, now awaiting freight for an outward voyage.

Reports from all sections in the interior of the great mining region east and north of us are of the most encouraging character. There is an increasing inquiry for goods, but the trouble of shipping treasure [illegible] is yet a very serious obstacle in the way of business. One firm writes to a business house here that they have $50,000 awaiting shipment but, [illegible] circumstances, and are almost entirely out of supplies for [illegible] mining trade in which they were engaged. Additional goods will be forwarded to them to-day, being a perfectly reliable house with an associate of the establishment resident here.

There is scarcity of some articles in the San Francisco markets. But as our telegraphic reports have indicated the state of the markets [illegible] during the period passing in review we need not recur to the subject at this time.

Some few changes will be observed in the subjoined price current [illegible] [illegible] from [illegible] the previous list. There continues a good demand for all kinds of harvesting machines and we quote selling prices. The steamer leaving [illegible] California machinery of this class [illegible] from San Francisco [illegible] stock [illegible] better than that of San Francisco. We quote:

Prices Greatly Reduced

LEFFEL'S

American Double Turbine Water Wheel

IS NOW MANUFACTURED BY THE OREGON IRON Works in the city of Portland and orders for the same can be filled immediately. We have a small supply of the different sizes from 10 inches to 48 inches in diameter. That we may know the proper sized wheel you require, measure your water in the following way: Take the width of the stream, the average depth, and the distance it flows in a minute.

All the wheels now in use give universal satisfaction. Both the construction of the wheel and its performance commend it to the better judgment of all minds capable of appreciating the highest development of mechanical construction. It [illegible] has conquered the most violent opposition.

This wheel is especially adapted to mining purposes. It is light and can be easily packed into the mountains. Wheels weighing from 100 to 300 pounds will yield from 10 to 40 horse power under a head of 25 or 30 feet. They are the cheapest wheel to set up known, as they are so arranged as to produce the greatest power possible from the water used.

The prices of these wheels have now been reduced to the ability of all. Come and see them or send for a circular to

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction, even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.
